

The Flyin' Ne

February issue

"An eyeball in the snow"

Cover art by the amazing Piggelwitz

NEWs LeTTeR

To be renamed when we think of a better name

Our best issue yet!!

CopywroNg February 30, 1986 Ralph Olygarf Printing Co. Splitzberg
C.C.C.P. Date: 2/13/95 in this, the prodigious month

Dedication: This issue of "the Flying News" is dedicated to a certain tv hospital. If this is you, you know who you are. If it isn't you, don't worry care, and Godspeed recuperatus!

This publication is not endorsed by Dr. Spock, Mr. Spock, or the Cente Disorder Control.

All mistakes made within this text are either circumstantial or purposef are not the fault of the writers of this magazine.

Due to a money crunch, we can no longer pay for a proof of purchase. proof of purchase here. We don't have a Laser Reader with which to cl can just

This issue cost 10 cents, but it's free. However, you may make a gener the "Flying News Journalists Salvation Fund" (FWNJJSF for short), as v destitute. Make check payable to me.

Don't look now, but there is an anvil on your head.

A man's best friend is his cordless Dremel moto-tool and/or a scrap of

This issue is composed of mainly carbon- based dead organic t but a small circulation of this issue has been tainted with a microscopic organism, which is programmed to infiltrate into the American society e spite this literary work! Aaaugh! No, just Kidding. Or am I?

A thought

— I think that one time I had a dream that I went to the Baltimore there are piranhas on the top floor and I wanted to show my 11 friends that piranhas could eat cool things, but the problem was that I only had

Notice: the following is a continuation of our highly popular cereal "Expansion". The editors and writers of this magazine once again say that if you accept any and all responsibility for any effects, frontal or side publication may have. It may also cause serious mental and physical effects which include death, mental pressure, and explosions of the brain.

"Brain expansion" goes to
News headlines today

Today, the Heights school, a very prominent educational institution, spontaneously caught fire and was burned to the ground. Though the institution will sadly have to shut down all learning for the last time, its doors to wonderful book-laden young ambitious children are closed. speculation as to the cause of this accident, though the young ambitious children do not fall into the equation whatsoever.

In other news, the space shuttle Challenger landed safely at Canaveral National Airport (CCNA) under a shroud of secrecy. The shuttle has apparently been in space for five years and had requested a landing run out of human waste storage space. Remember the spectacular landing nothing more than a clever ploy masterminded by the Central Intelligence Agency aliens from the planet Zogrihysteria.

In the last bit of news today, The Flying News celebrated its 100th anniversary. A celebration with a lot of sherry cake is expected soon. Absolut. Absolut.

Weather

There will be no weather today, this week, or ever again, because of global warming. Therefore, ignore this column.

Yucky numbers

The yucky numbers for today are: 3,5,9,4,2,9,0,1,8,9,3,4,6,87,
,65,2,6 ,9,0,64,4,2,65,8,90,65,3 and C.

Next month

Next month this magazine will finally expose the names of the publication, so that the readers may spit on them for their words and file suit for the harmful effects of this magazine. Also, there will prob: continuation of "Brain Expansion", more horoscopes, perhaps anoth paper, and another "Absolut" speech by Bill Clinton. In the meanwhi corporal works of mercy: Feed the dead, provide homes for the hung outcast, visit the aliens, water the imprisoned, clothe the sick, and re No, wait

What is still needed: Page num

It only awaits "Brai